Dear Ricky

This letter is intended to be private and confidential for your eyes only, although given your history I will be disappointed but certainly not surprised if it, or parts of it, are used to generate misleading and damaging propaganda. If this were to happen, it would only accelerate your rapidly declining reputation within greyhound racing.

I am deeply disappointed that after my considerable efforts over the last few years to help you arrive at a position whereby you could become a GBGB Director you have signed off on a four-page letter to me full of misrepresentations, untruths and pure fiction. It may be that you are not the author of this letter, but the fact is that it is your signature on it and it is you who will be held responsible should any of the material within the four pages appears in public, whether orally or in writing.

I have persevered with you in the past when others have suggested I was wasting my time because I felt that, though there might be differences of opinion, we both had the best interests of greyhound racing at heart. I no longer believe this to be true and I do not intend to give you any more of my time, which I can better spend trying to do something worthwhile.

In spite of your threats, I have no intention of responding to the ridiculous, malicious, manufactured and irrelevant content of your letter and I do not intend to correspond further with you on this issue.

Yours sincerely,

Tom Kelly
Chairman
